Minnix, who will report to WBA CEO Tim Wentworth and serve on his Executive Committee, will oversee the company's global legal, compliance, corporate governance and corporate security functions.

"Lanesha is a widely respected leader and legal expert, and we are thrilled to welcome her to WBA in this important role," said Wentworth. "The healthcare and retail landscapes continue to evolve, and her legal guidance and expertise will be invaluable as we continue to expand our reach beyond neighborhood pharmacies into other fast-growing areas of healthcare."

"I am excited and inspired by the unique opportunity to join WBA, and its trusted and iconic brands that meet the pharmacy and healthcare needs of thousands of communities every day," Minnix said. "I look forward to working with Tim and the Executive Committee, as well as other leaders across the global legal function and the organization more broadly, to advance WBA's business objectives, deliver sustainable value for stakeholders and
